COMMONWEALTH'S MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO MOVE TO DISMISS TOYOBO'S PETITION FOR REMOVAL AND TO OPPOSE ITS MOTION TO TRANSFER THIS CASE

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts respectfully requests an extension of time, up until December 6, 2004, in which to file a Motion to Dismiss Toyobo's Notice of Petition and to oppose Toyobo's Motion to Transfer. In its opposition the Commonwealth will raise, inter alia, its Eleventh Amendment Immunity to this suit in Federal Court as it has not waived its immunity to bring suits or be sued (if at all) pursuant to M.G.L. c. 93, § 4 et seq., in the Federal Court. Additionally, the Commonwealth has grounds to challenge the applicability of the automatic stay in the state court litigation in the Massachusetts Superior Court due to Second Chance Body Armor's bankruptcy filing pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362 (a) because Congress has exempted from the automatic stay a state government's exercise of its police and regulatory powers to protect its citizens' health, safety and welfare. 11 U.S.C. § 362 (b)(4); In the Matter of Commonwealth Oil Refinery, 805 F.2d 1175 at 1182 (5th Cir. 1986), cert. denied 483 U.S. 1005 (1987).

In the Commonwealth's lawsuit against Second Chance Body Armor and Toyobo, the Attorney General, on behalf of the citizens of Massachusetts, is exercising the special police powers granted him in M.G.L. c. 93A, § 4 to protect Massachusetts law enforcement personnel who purchased or are using Second Chance's defective bullet proof vests which were made from Zylon® fiber made and sold by Toyobo.

Wherefore, the Commonwealth respectfully requests additional time, until December 6, 2004 to submit its Motion to Dismiss Toyobo's Petition to Remove and to Oppose Toyobo's Motion to Transfer.

THE COMMONWEALTH HAS CONSULTED WITH TOYOBOS COUNSEL AND TOYOBOS STATES THAT IT WILL NOT OBJECT TO THIS MOTION.
